

Ekki

Family Name: Ochnaceae

Latin Name: Lophira Alata

Origin: West Africa

Strength Class: D70

Weight: Approx 1050 kg/m³

Durability: Very Durable

Description: Colour varies from dark red to chocolate brown with white deposits in the pores. It has an interlocked grain with a coarse and uneven texture.

Mechanical Properties: Very high bending and crushing strength, high resistance to shock loads and decay. Dries very slowly with severe splitting and distortion.

Main Uses: Marine Construction Sleepers
Heavy Construction Heavy Duty Flooring
Bridge Building Bog Mats
Decking